PortaPros' Jorge Gallo Graduates from Prestigious Leadership Nampa Program

Nampa, ID, October 2024 –PortaPros, a leader in portable sanitation and temporary fencing Nampa, Idaho — PortaPros is proud to announce that Jorge Gallo, a valued member of our Outside Sales team, has successfully completed the Leadership Nampa program, a 9-month leadership development initiative hosted by the Nampa Chamber of Commerce.

For 30 years, the Leadership Nampa program has been training tomorrow's leaders by providing participants with an in-depth understanding of the community's assets, needs, and opportunities while helping them enhance their personal leadership styles. Through workshops, hands-on experiences, and access to local organizations, the program broadens perspectives and strengthens connections to the Nampa community.

Reflecting on his experience, Jorge shared, "I really learned a lot about myself through the behavioral analysis. I learned about my skills, how to leverage them, and how to be a better leader and a better person in general."

Taelor Preheim, PortaPros' Head of Sales and Marketing, emphasized the company's commitment to fostering leadership development: "Over the years, we've enjoyed the opportunity to have members of our team attend this program. We will continue to engage our team in this leadership training as it challenges them to grow as individuals and contributors in our community."

Leadership Nampa alumni echo the program's transformative impact. Josh Hellwege, Class of 2018, noted, "Leadership Nampa is AMAZING! Whether you're new to the valley or a lifelong resident, this program will give you a new perspective on how incredible this community is and how much Nampa has to offer."

PortaPros congratulates Jorge on this significant achievement and looks forward to seeing him apply his newfound skills and insights to serve our customers and community with excellence.
